

VOTERS in Placer County have a new look to their Sample Ballot Booklet for the June 6, 2006 Primary Election: Starting in May, Placer County voters will begin to see sample ballot booklets arrive in their mailboxes with a new look. For convenience voters can locate their polling place information on the front cover. (See below).

In the past this information was located on the back cover. The Elections Division is pleased with this new look and hope it will be easier for voters to locate their polling place and voting precinct.

The Sample Ballot Booklet contains a sample of the voters' ballot and lists all races, local measures and state propositions. It also has specific information on candidate statements and measure arguments. On the back cover voters will continue to find an application for an absentee ballot as well as important election dates. Voters are encouraged to take the booklet with them to their polling place.

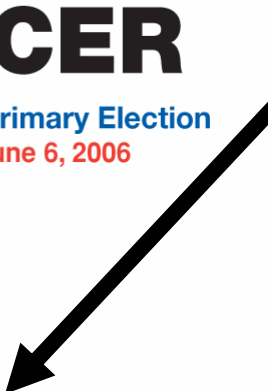

Voters can also look up their polling place location at the Elections Division website, www.placer.ca.gov/elections.

The last day to register for the June 6, Primary Election is May 22nd. Remember no matter how you vote, whether by mail or in person, have your voice heard and VOTE on June 6, 2006! Polling places will be open Election Day from 7AM to 8PM. For more election information contact the Placer County Elections Division at (530) 886-5650, E-mail us at election@placer.ca.gov or visit our website listed above.
